

Accreditation to Teach in a Catholic School

1. Victoria

To be accredited to teach any subject other than RE at a Catholic School in Victoria will require the completion of:

- EDRE429: Foundation Studies Teaching in Catholic Schools (study this as one of your Education Elective Units)

However, to teach Religious Education in a Catholic School will require the completion of the following units either as electives or as part of the Theological Studies Teaching Area:

Unit Code	Unit Name
THBS100	Introduction to the Bible
THCT100	What Christians Believe
THCT202	Christian Symbol, Ritual and Sacrament
EDRE299	Religious Education 1: Curriculum, Pedagogy and Assessment
EDRE399	Religious Education 2: Curriculum, Pedagogy and Assessment

Note: You will NOT be required to complete EDRE429: Foundation Studies Teaching in Catholic Schools if you opt for the Religious Education Teaching Area.

2. New South Wales

To be accredited to teach any subject other than RE at a Catholic School in New South Wales, you will need to apply for accreditation through the Diocesan Education Office for your school's district. You won't need to do this until you know you will be teaching in a Catholic school.

However, to teach Religious Education in a Catholic School will require the completion of the following units either as electives or as part of the Studies of Religion Teaching Area:

Unit Code	Unit Name
